Description

We are offering a well placed mid terrace house, located on the popular Portia Street in Ashington. The home offer wells proportioned accommodation - the living room is a generous sized room; the dining kitchen spans the width of the building and the main bedroom is a substantial size, which may lend itself to two rooms. In addition, the second bedroom is a decent sized double.

The home is heated via a combination boiler and there is double glazing throughout.

Occupying a good plot, there is a private lawned garden located at the front. Externally at the rear, there is an enclosed private yard which allows for off-road parking for two vehicles. A useful brick-built outbuilding provides ample storage.

The town centre with its wealth of amenities and shops is located within good proximity and the South East Northumberland rail link is also very accessible.

This type of property will lend itself well to a starter home, down-size purchase or buy-to-let-investments. FREEHOLD.
