Description

FOR SALE VIA AUCTION: terms and conditions apply.

A well-positioned mid-terrace commercial property occupying a prominent frontage along the busy Front Street in Concord town centre. The property offers accommodation over ground and first floors and would suit a variety of commercial, retail, office, beauty, studio or professional service uses, subject to any necessary consents.

The ground floor benefits from excellent visibility onto the main street, providing strong passing footfall and signage potential. Internally, the accommodation offers flexible space suitable for customer-facing or operational use.

To the first floor are two separate rooms which could be utilised for a range of purposes including offices, treatment rooms, consulting rooms, storage, meeting space, or additional workspace accommodation. There are metal shutters at the front and rear door providing additional security.

The property presents an excellent opportunity for owner occupiers, investors or businesses seeking a prominent and accessible location within an established commercial parade.
